50X1-HUM

1. [redacted] eight or ten westbound trains, each consisting of 40 flat cars, passed through Zbaszynek station (Neu Bentschen), near Miedzyrzecz (Meseritz). Each car carried a heavy six-wheeled motor-car chassis.
2. Between 1 and 10 September 1953 a similar number of eastbound trains passed through the station. They carried motor-car chassis on which cranes were mounted. The cranes were covered with tarpaulin but the arms of the cranes were visible and from their size and construction they appeared to be of considerable lifting capacity.
3. During the first five days of September 1953 two Soviet westbound trains, loaded with Katyushas, passed daily through Zbaszynek station. The number of cars is not known nor the number of Katyushas on each car.
